

Automating Instructional Feedback

Jonathon Lee

Your Facilitator

Jonathon Lee

St. Louis RPDC

Upper East Quadrant

ilee@edplus.org (outlook)

ilee@myedplus.org (Google)

Learning Targets

I can . . .

- Understand the importance feedback in relation to DACL
- Provide constructive feedback to facilitators
- Explore how Docs, Sheets & Forms can assist with automating timely feedback on instruction

Effective Feedback answers three questions

- Where am I going? - Feed up
 - goals
- How am I going? - Feed back
 - Current reality
- Where to next? - Feed forward
 - Steps to close the gap

TBO Connection

- Allow for quick observations around common traits/goals
- Immediate feedback with ability to comment
- Checkout the TBO Form
- Checkout the form we are currently using

Providing Feedback

Google Forms

Using the link below:

- Attend at least one other session
- Complete the form with positive responses
- Submit & return to this session by 9:55
- bit.ly/dcifeedback23
- When you have the form, you may head out to a session

Go observe - Return by 9:55

<http://bit.ly/dcifeedback23>

Share thoughts on the process.

What could this look like in your building?

Your Feedback

- When you submitted the form
 - Your responses went directly into this Google Doc
- Facilitators received a copy of this document in their e-mails (in pdf form)

Google Sheets Magic

- Form data gets dumped within Sheets
- Add-on (Extension) Autocrat allows Forms & Docs to talk
- Autocrat then sends the document to the e-mail entered within the form

How to Build it?

Step-by-Step Guide

Creating the Form

Step 1

Creating the Document

Step 2

Creating the Magic

Step 3

LT - Explore how Docs, Sheets & Forms can assist with automating timely feedback on instruction

Opening Video

LT - Explore how Docs, Sheets & Forms can assist with automating timely feedback on instruction

Step-by-Step Guide

Creating the Form

Step 1

7 minutes

Creating the Document

Step 2

6 minutes

Creating the Magic

Step 3

16 minutes

Thank you!

bit.ly/autofeedback23

Jonathon Lee

St. Louis RPDC

Upper East Quadrant

jlee@edplus.org (outlook)

jlee@myedplus.org (Google)